examining a vast array of esoteric subjects from the earliest times until this current era modern esoteric takes a radically different perspective on the social scientific and economic issues of our day reality is not what it appears a number of disciplines and practices ranging from ancient vedic literature to quantum physics from meditation and prayer to intentional manifestation to name a few are coming together around concepts that are beginning to link actual physical reality to our thoughts and consciousness in a feedback loop where our consciousness is not merely influenced by reality as we perceive it but reality is in turn influenced by our thoughts organized into three sections lifeology control and thrive modern esoteric beyond our senses by world explorer magazine editor brad olsen ccc publishing march 2014 examines the flaws in modern history and looks at how ancient esoteric teachings coupled with accelerated scientific advancements can be used to reverse the dead end course the world is heading towards the lifeology section explores the long and storied alternative narrative of life on this planet in the control section author brad olsen examines how big brother is here in the form of the new world order and how they keep the knowledge of humankind s true nature from the mass population finally the thrive section looks at all the ways humans are evolving to achieve their full potential indeed the revolution is consciousness through exploration and the integration of cutting edge science with ancient wisdom olsen believes the dawn of our new society is faced on the one hand with global tyranny or we can overcome the oppression and advance towards universal abundance and enlightenment without government and media manipulation this can be possible and the golden age will be attained with the rapid advancement of human consciousness bringing together scholars from art history visual studies and related disciplines this edited volume asks why trumpism looks the way it does and what that look means for american and global society grouped into six categories the essays in this volume tackle some of the most perplexing and urgent aspects of the trumpist visual project two of the most striking aspects of that project are its use of novel commodity forms including the iconic red baseball caps as well as its embrace of social media trump's outlandish persona and striking physicality have lent themselves to caricature both from his critics and perhaps more surprisingly his supporters that physicality as well as his movement's hearkening back to a mostly imagined era of mid twentieth century prosperity has also brought gender and the body into sharp focus perhaps second only to the aforementioned red hat is trumpism's vigorous use of interventions into public space including traditional campaign signs as well as flags and other ad hoc visual and architectural materials finally there were the events of january 6 2021 when many of trumpism's most outré visual and cultural preoccupations exploded from the shadows onto television screens across the country taken as a whole the essays in this book examine trumpist visuality from the seemingly trivial to the starkly horrifying as well as offering a measured sense of the various resistances and responses that have characterized artistic responses to trump from the beginning of his prominence the book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture american studies and cultural and media studies
